

The Official Watermelon Cutting: August 14, 2007

Clinical History: A 2 month old home grown 24" melon underwent surgery.

Gross Findings: A large red mass was removed from the subcutaneous tissue. There were black hard seed-like structures (1cm x 7mm) found throughout.

Autopsy Results:
Juicy, sweet, and good!

